

Starkville TaeKwonDo

BROWN BELT STUDY SHEET

TERMINOLOGY:

All terminology from white to purple belt, plus the following:

Low Spear Finger.....Hardan Kwansu
High Low Combination Block.....Sangdan Hardan Moasoso Marki
Low X-Block.....Hardan Kyocha Joomok Marki
Closed Stance.....Moa Sagi
Mountain Block (W-Shaped Stamping Block).....Sans Marki
Low Double Forearm Block.....Hardan Do Palmok Marki
Head Grabbing.....Mori Jarpi
Knee Kick.....Murup Chagi
High Spear Finger.....Sangdan Kwansu
Low Knife Hand Block.....Hardan Sudo Marki

TECHNIQUES:

Candidates for Brown Belt must know all techniques from white to purple belt, plus the following:

Low Spear Finger	Low Double Forearm Block
High Low Combination Block	High Spear Finger
Low X-Block	Low Knife Hand Block
Mountain Block (W-Shaped Stamping Block)

Candidate must:

Know all facts and techniques from Yellow through Purple Belt Study Sheet

Be able to execute techniques in sets of four as requested by the test board (e.g., attack – block – attack - block)

Be able to walk through and recite the techniques of hyung Chon-Ji through Toi-Gye

Candidate must recite the meaning of and perform the patterns:

Chon-Ji: (19 movements, 2 kihaps) – Heaven and Earth

Tan-Gun: (21 movements, 3 kihaps) – The legendary founder of Korea in 2333 B.C.

To-San: (24 movements, 3 kihaps) – Named after Master Ahn Chung Ho, a great patriot and educator of Korea.

Won-Hyo: (28 movements, 3 kihaps) – Named for the monk who introduced Buddhism to the Silla Dynasty in 686 A.D.

Yul-Kok: (38 movements, 3 kihaps) – Pseudonym of Yi, known as the “Confucius of Korea.” The 38 movements of this pattern represent the 38th degree latitude of his birthplace. The diagram of this pattern represents scholar.

Chung-Gun: (32 movements, 3 kihaps) – Named after Master Ahn Chung Gun who assassinated the first Japanese overlord of Korea. The 32 movements represent the age he was executed in prison.

Toi-Gye: (37 movements, 3 kihaps) - was an authority on Neo-Confucianism. The 37 movements represent the 37th degree latitude of his birthplace.